

COMPETITION FOR UNIVERSITY STUDENTS

“MEETING CHINA” SHORT VIDEO COMPETITION

2026 marks the 20th anniversary of the establishment of diplomatic relations between China and Montenegro. To celebrate this grand occasion, University of Donja Gorica, China Studies, and the Tourism Confucius Classroom at UDG invite students to participate in:

COMPETITION

The competition is open to all university students studying in Montenegro, including international students.

Participants are invited to submit a short video on the theme “Meeting China”.

ORGANIZERS

UDG China Studies and Tourism Confucius Classroom at UDG

DESCRIPTION

The aim of the competition is to encourage participants to creatively capture and present their experiences of “Meeting China”—whether through cultural activities, everyday encounters with Chinese elements, interactions with Chinese friends, engagement with technology or the arts, travel experiences, or personal imagination and reflection. Videos may be documentary-style or creatively interpreted, showcasing participants’ diverse and multifaceted impressions of China.

TRACKS

1. ORIGINAL VIDEO TRACK

Participants create videos filmed and produced entirely by themselves (e.g. vlog, interviews, storytelling, short drama, campus life, culture experience...).

2. EDITING TRACK

Participants may use publicly available online materials (images, sound, audio, open-source clips) to create an edited video. All sources must be properly credited.

THEME INSPIRATION

For inspiration, participants may consider (but are not limited to):

- Chinese festivals, cuisine, calligraphy, martial arts, or Chinese-learning experiences
- Encounters with Chinese elements in daily life, including technology, media, film, music, and products
- Communication, cooperation, or friendship with Chinese people
- Impressions of Chinese cities, scenery, or travel
- Creative reinterpretations, mixed-media editing, or imaginative storytelling

VIDEO REQUIREMENTS

- Theme: “Meeting China”
- Length: Up to 3 minutes
- Format: MP4, horizontal orientation
- Language: Videos may be in any language. All videos must include English subtitles.
- Quality: 720p or above
- Copyright: Original Track entries must be fully self-filmed and produced, while Editing Track entries must use legally sourced materials and list all sources.
- Restrictions: Use of artificial intelligence (AI)–generated video or audio content is not permitted.

METHOD AND DEADLINE OF APPLICATION

Deadline: Apr. 15, 2026

Applications may be submitted:

- In person
- By mail: University of Donja Gorica, Oktoih 1, 81000 Podgorica, Montenegro
- By email: tamara.radinovic@udg.edu.me

Please include the note:

“Meeting China–Short Video Competition organized by UDG China Studies and the Tourism Confucius Classroom at UDG.”

Please also provide the following information:

Name, school/university (if applicable), contact information, and selected track (Original or Editing).

AWARDS

UDG China Studies and the Tourism Confucius Classroom at UDG will select awards separately for the two tracks.

Each track will include the following prizes:

- First Prize: 200 euros
- Second Prize: 150 euros
- Third Prize: 100 euros
- Two Excellent Prizes: 50 euros each